News of Petersburg

Times-Dispatch Bureau,

Petersburg, Va., October 21, 1913.
The Methodist Churches in this city and district are preparing their reports to be presented to the Virginia Annual Conference, which meets in November. These reports generally will be of a highly gratifying character, showing spiritual growth, increase in membership of church and Sunday-schools, financial prosperity and large contributions to missions and other church causes. During the past year costly and handsome improvements have been made to several of the churches in this city. As has been stated in The Times-Dispatch, the close of this conference year, by reason of the expiration of the four years' terms, appears of pastoral service will necessitate four changes in the Methodist pulpits in Petersburg. The Rev. Lloyd C. Moore, of the New Memorial Church, the Rev. W. T. A. Haynes, of Wesley Church, the Rev. H. C. Gregory, of Bradford Church, who have faithfully and most satisfactorily served as pastors here for four years, will be transferred to other fields of labor. And so, also, will the Rev. J. K. Joffe, the presiding elder of the district, for the same reason.

The Rev. George E. Booker, pastor of Washington Street Church, has not yet served out his four years' term, but it is reported that some of the big churches in other cities are seeking to secure him. His congregation here is anxious to retain him for his full term, and will fight hard to keep him. Some changes are to be made this year in the pulpits on the county circuits in the district.

Two Accidents.
Master Charles Rainey Lewis, the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lewis, was quite painfully hurt yesterday while playing at school. He ran against a bicycle and was cut about the face and eye. He was taken to the hospital by Dr. Hains, and he is getting on nicely to-day.

This morning Ben Hill, colored, employed at the factory of the MacIntosh-Zimmerman Tobacco Co., on Market Street, had his left arm fractured and also received other injuries in an accident. He was loading boxes on the elevator on the third floor of the factory, when the rope broke and the elevator descended to the first floor. Hill fell with the elevator, and in the jarring the boxes received his injuries. He was taken to the hospital and given prompt attention.

Goes to Synod.

The Rev. Charles R. Stripping, of Tabernacle Presbyterian Church, the Rev. J. A. McClure, of the Second Church, and the Rev. J. W. Hassett, of the Third Church, have gone to Danville to attend the Synod of Virginia, which met there this evening in its 126th annual session. They carry good reports from the respective churches. The Third Church was organized from the Second Church this year.

Two Fires During Day.

Shortly after noon to-day, during the prevalence of a high wind, a frame dwelling and kitchen in Mechanics Alley, in the rear of E. C. Kent's furniture store, on Sycamore Street, caught fire and was partially destroyed. The building was owned by E. C. Kent and insured for $750. It was occupied by Lavinia Jones, colored, whose furniture was practically ruined by fire and water. Included in her property was a piano and parlor organ. She was well-fixed, and estimates her loss at $2,000, with no insurance. She was getting ready to move to another place to-day. The fire originated in a lot of paper from sparks from a stove.

A Quiet Marriage.

This morning, at 10 o'clock, at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Shedd, on Guarantee Street, Miss Grace Carson Bryant was married to Richard Southall Kidd, of this city. The Rev. Charles R. Stripping officiated. In view of recent bereavement in the family of the bride, the wedding was very quiet, only immediately relatives being present.

General News Notes.
Dr. W. F. Drewry, superintendent, and Dr. H. C. Henry, First Assistant Superintendent of the Central State Hospital, left for Lynchburg to-day to attend the meeting of the State Medical Society.

Mrs. R. E. Brunet is quite sick at her home, on Harrison Street.

Many Petersburg people will attend the Agricultural Fair at Emporia, which opened today, and many will patronize the Chestnut Fair, which opens on Thursday. Very close and friendly relations exist between Petersburg and the Counties of Chesterfield and Greensville.

Judge Southall has revoked his order for a special term of the Circuit Court, Dinwiddie, which was to have been held this week for the hearing of cases carried over from the regular term.

Mrs. James T. Powell, of this city, while visiting in Baltimore fell yesterday and was severely injured. She will be brought home to-morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Talbot, of New York, are guests of Judge and

The Campaign For Municipal Clubhouse On In Earnest

The following open letter explains itself. It is the purpose of the Richmond Amateur Athletic Federation to have the city build a public clubhouse at William Byrd Park. After reading the letter, if you approve the plan, fill the blank below and mail to F. S. Tousey, Secretary R. A. A. F.:

To the Men and Boys of Richmond:

The Richmond Amateur Athletic Federation believes that there is need of a municipal clubhouse at Byrd Park, open to every white man and boy in Richmond. Such a clubhouse would be under the direct supervision of the Administrative Board of the city of Richmond, and the board would appoint an athletic trainer to direct the work in the interest of the white men and boys of Richmond.

The clubhouse would contain at least 2,000 steel lockers, baths and living quarters for the trainer. A cinder track would be built, 100 yards dash, courts for basketball, field hockey, soccer, lacrosse, cricket; also additional courts for baseball, tennis, football and other outdoor sports. The equipment, free to all, would consist of all apparatus for jumps, pole vault, hurdles, hammer throw, discus, shot put—in fact, everything necessary for training in every department of athletics. This athletic equipment would be installed inside the cinder track, which would be well lighted at night, so that the workmen and boys would have an opportunity to use it after the day's work was over.

The suggestion for the establishment of this municipal clubhouse has been received with favorable comment by city officials, private citizens, heads of schools, athletic organizations, and in particular by employers of men and boys, who feel that such a work would be of great value to those who do not now have a chance for physical training in the open.

The question which will be asked by the Mayor, Administrative Board, Board of Aldermen, Council and Finance Committee is, Do the men and boys of Richmond want such a clubhouse, and will they use it and appreciate it if it is built?

The Richmond Amateur Athletic Federation wants this matter brought before the city of Richmond this fall for consideration in the budget for 1914, and to this end every white boy and man, from twelve years old and up, living in Richmond or suburbs, who is directly interested, is requested to fill out the blank printed below and mail the same to Frank S. Tousey, Secretary, Twenty-first and Short P. Street. If we can have 2,500 of these blanks returned within a short time favorable action is practically assured.

COACHES PLEASED AT SHOWING MADE

Virginia's Eleven in Stiff Practice Preparing for Game With Georgia University.

Charlottesville, Va., October 21.—

Virginia's football team worked out to-day in the sight of the snow-capped Blue Ridge Mountains, the first real football weather of the year. As a result, the men displayed plenty of ginger, and their showing was very gratifying to the coaches. Every member of the first squad reported.

After a half hour devoted to signal practice, the ends were drilled in going down the field under punts. Coleman, who has been playing at full back, alternated with Gillette at right end, and Goodwyn, the former Episcopal High School star, with White at left end. Both showed up so well that it is a question now which will be picked for the wing positions in the contest with Georgia on Saturday. Coleman is heavier than Gillette, and is a valuable man on the defensive, while Goodwyn has had more experience than White.

The linemen of the first and second elevens were instructed in charging and breaking through, and later the backs and ends on the variety were tried out on the defensive. Flanagan, the clever little quarter back on the second squad, drove his team at a lively clip.

The work of the players will be closely watched in the scrimmages to be held to-morrow and next day. The squad, twenty-eight strong, will leave here at 9 o'clock Thursday for Atlanta. The officials selected for the Georgia game are Wahoo, of Carlisle, referee, and Barry, of Georgetown, umpire.

MURDERER CAUGHT BY LURAY OFFICERS

Closely Pursued by Four Madison County Deputy Sheriffs, Sisk Surrenders.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Luray, Va., October 21.—Fleeing from four deputy sheriffs of Madison County, Charles T. Sisk, a desperado, whose home is in the wilds of the Blue Ridge of that county, was arrested in Luray at a late hour yesterday evening by Deputy Sheriff Renolds, Chief of Police Slusher and Special Deputy Robinson. Sisk on the evening before had shot and killed W. A. Dodson and mortally wounded a man by the name of Berry, in a desperate running battle in the Blue Ridge, near the line between Page and Madison Counties. Pursued all night in the mountains, the four deputies about daylight learned that Sisk had made his way to this county on horseback. Renewing their pursuit the men headed for Luray, where they had been informed Sisk was going to sell his horse. Finding himself closely pursued, Sisk turned into a local livery stable, where he was confronted by the three Luray officials who demanded his surrender. Seeing that escape was impossible, Sisk threw up his hands while seated on his horse. He was hurried to the Page County jail and soon taken in charge by the four Madison deputy sheriffs.

Sisk was released from the penitentiary a short time ago, after having served a term for killing a man. Sisk volunteered his version of the killing of Dodson and the wounding of Berry, saying that while acting as peace-maker between the two, who were engaged in a fight, they set upon him, pursuing and firing at him as he ran. Sisk says the men overtook him just as he attempted to scale a fence, and that while he was on the ground Dodson attempted to strike him with a stone. Then he says he shot Dodson through the heart. While still on the ground he mortally wounded Berry.

Officials tell a different story, saying the tragedy arose over the lifting ability of the three men. Handcuffed, Sisk was placed astride his horse and the trip through a blinding snowstorm in the Blue Ridge was begun to Madison Courthouse. Sisk rode between two of the sheriffs, with two others in the rear. Sisk also says he had incurred the enmity of the men by reason of informing on them for illicit distilling.

MEDICAL SOCIETY IN ANNUAL SESSION

Nearly 200 Physicians in Attendance at Convention in Lynchburg.

Lynchburg, Va., October 21.—The forty-fourth annual convention of the Virginia Medical Society convened here to-night, being called to order by Dr. Southgate Leigh, of Norfolk, the opening prayer being by Rev. Claudius F. Smith, rector of Grace Memorial Episcopal Church.

The address of welcome was by Fred Harper, and the response by Dr. Hugh T. Nelson, of Charlottesville.

These addresses were followed by the annual address of the president, which was followed by the reports of executive council and standing committees, and the reports of the secretary and treasurer.

The address of President Leigh was a strong paper, treating with suggestions for the uplift of the society and for the good of the public. He pleaded for a more effective organization, first through local and effective societies, of which there are now thirty-five. He announced himself for an ethical contract system, which would be satisfactory to the profession and helpful to the public.

Dr. W. D. Turner, of Ocean View, stated that the application for membership this year was the largest during the twenty-seven years he had headed that committee, and 115 applications were favorably passed upon.

The treasurer's report showed collections during the year amounting to $2,581.77, with balance last year of $125.92.

Nearly 200 physicians attended the opening session.

It's No Longer a Secret

Everybody Has Found Out That Quaker Herb Extract and Oil of Balm Do Cure Where All Others Have Failed.

Listen to this report of a local fireman on the Shenandoah Division of the Norfolk and Western Railway: Mr. J. D. Jervis, only twenty-three years of age, has had catarrh of the head, stomach and kidneys for three years. Catarrh of the head kept him hawking and spitting out nasty mucus. His breath was foul, sometimes his nose was stopped up, smarting and burning. Finally his stomach became affected. The food would sour and ferment, which caused gases to form. Sour mouthfuls would belch up. Sometimes dizziness and shortness of breath would follow, as most railroad men are afflicted with kidney trouble, and especially when they have catarrh. He, too, had kidney trouble to some extent. But the worst of all came when he was taken down with the grip. The aches and pains, as almost every person who has experienced knows, is to suffer the tortures, but the after effects are really worse, than the disease itself, and that was the condition Mr. Jervis was in. He couldn't eat, couldn't sleep well, weak and all run down; would try to work, but one trip of two days and he would have to lay up for a week, although darning and darning all the time. Nothing seemed to reach his case until he called at Humphries & Webb's Market Square drug store and had a talk about the wonderful Quaker Herb Extract and Oil of Balm. After hearing about the thousands of people who have been cured of catarrh in every form, stomach trouble, indigestion, and how it was the best medicine in the world to purify the blood and to build up weak, run-down systems, and especially after stages of the grip, he decided to buy the small or three-bottle treatment, and to-day he called again to get three more bottles, and said that he went to work three days after he started to take Quaker Herb Extract, and has been working and feeling better every day. He says Quaker Herb Extract is the only medicine that has ever done him any good, and has at last found a cure. Now these same Quaker Remedies can be obtained at the Tragle's drug store, 317 East Broad Street. The Health Teacher says this is only one of the hundreds who are proclaiming the great powers of the wonderful Quaker Herb Extract and Oil of Balm. Why will you wait and suffer when you see your neighbors and friends being cured all around you? Call to-day and obtain Quaker Herb Extract, six bottles for $5.00, three for $2.50, and one for $1.00. Oil of Balm, the wonderful pain relief, 50 cents.—Advertisement.
